

9th Annual Indian Education For All Best Practices
Conference Agenda
February 22-24, 2015

Holiday Inn and Museum of the Rockies, Bozeman, MT

Building Tribally and Culturally Specific Background Knowledge for Montana's Teachers

An ALL NEW exciting format this year!

- Sunday, February 22 from 1:00-3:30 pm: Indian Education for All 101 Workshop for new teachers and teachers new to Montana, or teachers just wanting to know more about IEFA. The basics of Indian Education for All, its history, OPI's multitude of resources and ideas for cross cultural, cross content integration will be covered. Two master sessions, one ELA and one Math, will be offered concurrently that will focus on the integration of MCCS and IEFA.
- Monday, February 23 will feature tribal educational leaders and all sessions will be based on tribally specific cultural immersion to help build background knowledge for teachers.
- Tuesday, February 24 will feature tribally specific curriculum.

Registration will be $35 for the main conference on February 23 and 24, and $50 to include the Sunday Institutes. Registration will on a FIRST COME FIRST SERVED basis. So, sign up early!

*Pre-Registration is required for Institutes and all breakout sessions due to space limitations – thank you for your flexibility in advance.
