School Nutrition Programs

Re: Free Milk Benefits

The following updated materials for households applying for free or reduced-price meals are available on the School Nutrition Programs website at www.opi.mt.gov/schoolfood/index.html in the School Programs Forms and Guidelines page. These forms are required to successfully administer the School Nutrition Programs.

Required forms include:

- Public Release
- Letter to Households (front and back) and Instructions for Applying
- Free and Reduced-Price School Meals Application 2012-13 (front and back)
- Notice to Households of Approval/Denial of Benefits or Notice of Direct Certification
All households must be notified of their eligibility status. Households who are denied benefits must be given written notification of the denial. The notification must advise the household of the reason for the denial, the right to appeal, instruction on how to appeal, and a statement that they may re-apply for free and reduced price meal benefits at any time during the school year.
- Income Eligibility Guidelines 2012-13

Insert your district's specific information in the [bold bracketed fields]. If you make additional changes, you must submit them to the state agency for approval.

Remember these changes as a result of the Healthy Hunger Free Kids Act:

- Foster children are categorically eligible for free meals.
- Only the last four digits of the household adult's Social Security Number must be provided on the application.
